BREED THEATER.

The Reckoning, Powerful Dramatic French Feature.

At the Breed theater last evening was shown for the first time in this city the powerful French dramatic motion picture entitled "The Reckoning," in which M. Krause, one of the foremost dramatic actors on the French stage today, appears, playing the part of the injured husband. M. Krause is at present playing the part of Plambeau, as leading man for Mme. Sarah Bernhardt in "L'Alphonse." The tremendous physical strain upon the talented artist in this piece is most apparent in the startling climax.

The big feature picture is entitled "The Reckoning," and is a wonderful story of the strenuous days in 1644, when Father Jones, the Jesuit priest, labored so hard and long to establish the missions in the dangerous districts of Quebec. In this district were located the hostile Iroquois Indians, noted for their extreme hatred for the whites, and it is in this district that many of the "eventful" scenes of this silent drama take place, requiring many scenes to complete the wonderful story. A long bill of extra fine pictures are shown this week, among them being a pictorial representation of the famous story of Oliver Twist, shown in twenty-five elaborate scenes, the success "Don't Forget to Drop a Line to Mother," with exquisite artistic slides to accompany it. She is most popular with the patrons, her splendid rendition of "Roses Being Brought to You" winning many compliments.

LINCOLN PARK.

Vaudeville at Rustic Theater.

Lincoln park's patronage continues to increase steadily and the general opinion on the part of the visitors to this pleasure ground, with its comfortable rustic theater and inviting dancing pavilion, is that time and money are well invested when spent for an outing at the park.

Hawley and Alcott in "Just Married a Week" are now first on the bill and the wind-up entertainment is William Cahill, whose "Man from Ireland" is decidedly funny. The novelty character changes by Miss Corbett continue to delight, the dancing of the Phillips sisters is artistic and their singings are catchy, and Lewis and Harry in "Along the Swanne River," sing old plantation ballads sweetly and thump the banjo and guitar harmoniously. All five acts are applauded to the echo and together they furnish an hour and twenty minutes of solid fun and enjoyment.

The matinee commences at 2.30 and the 2.45 car from the square gets one to the park in time for the performance. The evening show begins at 8.30 and the 7.45 car, the one employed by most of the city people who visit the park after supper. It is a cool and delightful ride of 20 minutes between square and park. The evening performance is over in time for the 8.30 car for Norwich, which reaches the square at 10.10, but there are a couple of cars later if one wishes to stay down there in the country for a while or to take a few whirles on the floor. The "gala" play for dancing until 11. The last car for the city leaves the park station at 11.05.

NEW CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY.

Who Are Succeeding Their Fathers in Corporation Control.

A week ago a list of men serving as directors in the various corporations was published in these columns. W. K.
Vanderbilt was credited with being director in 72 companies. John D.
Rockefeller was down for only one.
Over half of the 26 men whose names were thus mentioned resigned from one or more boards during the past year; the same is practically true of what happened in 1917, 1918 and other preceding years since 1901. The following table shows upon whose shoulders some of the discarded responsibilities fell.

August Belmont, Jr.	16	17	14	12
James A. Sullivan	16	17	14	12
Kingsland Gould	16	17	14	12

The foregoing men may be classed as sons of the "one hundred captains of industry" who entertained Prince Henry of Prussia at a luncheon given at Sherry's early in 1902. At that time nearly a third of the junior captains were in college.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is a director of various subsidiary Vanderbilt companies. Ogden Mills looks after his father's interests in eight railroad and steamship lines. George F. Baker, Jr., is vice president of the First National Bank and the First Securities company, a director of the Chase National Bank, and four railroads. James N. Hill is vice president of the Northern Pacific and a director in several other railroads. So far H. H. Rogers' principal interests lie in the Virginia railroad, and the Amalgamated Copper company.
John D. Rockefeller's interests are largely banking, and John D. Rockefel-ter, Jr., attends board meetings of the Standard Oil, American Linseed, Lackawanna and United States Steel—New York Evening Post.

Will Attend Grand Encampment.
William J. Berges of Stamford, grand treasurer of the grand encampment, I.
O. O. F., has been invited and will attend the encampment meeting in Canada. In company with his wife he will leave Stamford on Aug. 9th. On their return they will start on a few weeks' cruise up the Hudson river on board his flagship, Katrina B.

"Were you ever in a railroad disaster?"
"Yes—I once kissed the wrong girl while going through the tunnel."

BAND PAID TO QUIT.

New Haven Union Musicians Would Not March in Line with Non-Union.

It's an open question who got the best of it, union or non-union men, says the New Haven Journal-Courier.
The situation was this: At a parade incidental to the annual celebration in honor of the Italian Saints Nataleno, the patron of Atrani, a town from which quite a few of the local Italian residents originate, two Italian bands were marching in line, one the Roma Olympia band, a union band, and the other the further back with another society, the Ciaburri band, a non-union band, and that started the trouble.
The procession was near St. Michael's church on Wooster square, when the Olympia band discovered that a non-union band was marching with them in the same procession, and fearing to be fined by the union, at once refused to go any further unless the non-union band were dropped.

The peaceful spirit and discretion of the arrangement committee of the St.
Mataleno society got the better of the arising trouble and mastered the situation by dismissing the Ciaburri band with full pay, which seemed to solve the difficulty to everybody's satisfaction, and fully pacified the Ciaburri men.

$5,000 ORGAN

Given Meriden Baptist Church as Miller Memorial.

The announcement was made at the First Baptist church, Meriden, Sunday that Edward and Arthur E. Miller, sons of the late Edward Miller, have donated the sum of $5,000 to the church society for an organ in memory of their father and mother.
Rev. Robert A. Ashworth announced at the Sunday evening service that the building and repair committee has succeeded in raising more than the $25,- 000 asked for by $280, making the total of pledges in the hands of the committee $25,280.84.
